Recurso: <https://thoughtbot.com/upcase>

The screenshot shows a red header bar with the text "UPCASE by thoughtbot" and navigation links for "Trails", "Videos", "Flashcards", "Forum", "Search", "About Us", and a user profile icon. Below the header, the main content area has a white background. It features a large title "Why Use Statically Typed Languages?" in bold black font, followed by a subtitle "The Weekly Iteration" in blue, and a duration "15 minutes". A horizontal line separates this from a video thumbnail. The thumbnail itself has a white background with the same title "Why Use Statically Typed Languages?" in blue, and below it is a blue play button icon. At the bottom of the thumbnail, the names "Gabe Berke-Williams & Ian Anderson" are written in gray.

--- Day 1: Report Repair ---

After saving Christmas five years in a row, you've decided to take a vacation at a nice resort on a tropical island. Surely, Christmas will go on without you.

The tropical island has its own currency and is entirely cash-only. The gold coins used there have a little picture of a starfish; the locals just call them stars. None of the currency exchanges seem to have heard of them, but somehow, you'll need to find fifty of these coins by the time you arrive so you can pay the deposit on your room.

To save your vacation, you need to get all fifty stars by December 25th.

Collect stars by solving puzzles. Two puzzles will be made available on each day in the Advent calendar; the second puzzle is unlocked when you complete the first. Each puzzle grants one star. Good luck!

Notas para avanzar

- Encuentra el bug o issue de un proyecto que usas en tu trabajo diario
- Elige la mentoría
- Dedicale tiempo a las buenas prácticas (pruebas, refactorización, optimizaciones etc.)
- No pares de capacitarte

Mi meta es: "Quiero conseguir mi primer trabajo"

- Evalúa tu presencia en la internet
- Presencia en software de código abierto
- Preparación para entrevista
- Integrate con la comunidad
- Embrasa la humildad

Tu presencia en la internet

- La internet es para siempre
- Si es algo que no le mostrarías a tu jefe ¡no lo publiqués!

Curso de marca personal
<https://appsc0.platzi.com/clases/>

The screenshot shows Jess Rudder's GitHub profile. At the top, there is a circular profile picture of Jess, a woman with brown hair, smiling. Below the picture, her name "Jess Rudder" is displayed in bold, followed by her GitHub handle "JessRudder". A bio text block states: "I write code @github and talk code at http://youtube.com/compchomp. In my spare time I snap photos of random mammals while running really, really far." To the right of the bio is a "Follow" button and a "..." menu item.

At the top of the main content area, there are three tabs: "Overview" (which is selected), "Repositories", and "Projects".

The "Overview" section contains several icons: three blue game controllers, three red apples, and three yellow batteries. Below these icons is a message from Snarfblatt: "Important message from Snarfblatt: Scarfing down all thingst!" with three buttons below it: "Check Status" (green), "Feed" (white), and "Play" (white).

To the right of the message is a large, cartoonish purple bear-like character with a yellow belly and a long tail, wearing a small yellow hat.

The "Pinned" section features two repository cards:

- Botmasher/compchomp: Documentation, tools and project enhancements for our codertainment videos. Starred 1, Forked 1.
- EloquentJavascript: Working through the problems in EJS. Starred 1, Forked 1.

@alacolombia

Crea tu readme.md

1. Crea un repositorio que tenga el mismo nombre que su nombre de usuario de GitHub
2. Inicializa el repositorio con un archivo README
3. Comienza a editar el archivo README

Tu presencia en el software de código abierto

- ¿A quién conoces?
- Igual como en tu hoja de vida que tus contribuciones reflejan tus intereses
- Considera el tipo de compañía en tu mira
- Recordatorio el mundo está cambiando, ya no solo pesa importancia de donde te graduaste ¡pero el poder demostrar lo que puedes hacer!

@alacolombia

Integrate con la comunidad

- Meetups/Conferencias
- Propone un "lighting talk"
- Sé voluntario

Participación activa para las cosas (de pronto) no tan interesantes

- Tareas tediosas o que consumen mucho tiempo
- Pruebas funcionales
- Pruebas de rendimiento

Notas para conseguir tu primer trabajo

- Que este todo en orden, desde tu marca personal, tus perfiles sociales y de GitHub
- Práctica para entrevistas
- Integrate con la comunidad

No tienes que saberlo todo, ¡solo demostrar la capacidad de aprender!

En conclusión

- Contribuye con enfoque
- ¡No te olvides sé egoísta pero humilde!
- Puedes continuar siendo un buen ciudadano y contribuidor de código
